Welcome

Welcome to Terre Haute South Vigo High School for the 26th First Financial Classic Tournament!

This holiday tournament provides all of our fans an opportunity to watch 28 games of high school basketball over a four-day period. Dean Smith, legendary head basketball coach of the University of North Carolina, once said, "Basketball is a beautiful game when the five players on the court play with one heartbeat". All of our 16 participating teams come with one goal in common – to compete and win. As a result, fans get to witness some of the best high school basketball that will be played during this season.

Once again, First Financial is honored to be the Corporate Sponsor of the First Financial Classic. We appreciate the continued support of all the fans of this Tournament as you come to cheer on your teams.

Best of luck to all of our student athletes and the schools they represent. We look forward to four great days of basketball.
